Dear Mr. Dulles:

I had expected to be able to let you know before this as to my ability to continue further the discussion in your office of June 16. However, a matter underwa at that time is still unresolved and I do not feel that I should take more of your time unless and until I am free to proceed with you to a conclusion.

Within the next few days I expect a resolution of this matter and will immediately thereafter communicate with you. Meanwhile I want you to know how much I enjoyed the meeting in your office with you and Mr. [REDACTED] and that the subject of it interests me very greatly.

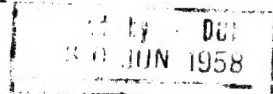

Sincerely yours,

STATINTL
